

Lars Erik Anders Bergstrom

SUMMARY/PROFILE

1988-1992 Stockholm School of Economics and Business Administration, Finance and Eastern European Studies.

- 1991 Vice-Consul, Consulate General of Sweden, Leningrad/Riga, USSR.
1992 First Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Stockholm, Sweden, Head of Russian Desk.
- 1993 Advisor to the Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation, Deputy Director of the Monetary and Finance Unit, Moscow.
- 1994 Harvard University Officer, Advisor, and Board Member at the Russian Privatization Center of the Russian Property Committee, Goskomimushchestvo, Moscow.
Managed restructuring projects of privatized Russian corporations.
- 1995-1998 CEO of ABN Amro (Equities) Russia. Member of Management Board of Alfred Berg Group and Member of ABN Amro Emerging Market Management Committee.
- 1998-2000 CEO of SEB Enskilda Securities Corporate Finance (Russia), Moscow.
- 2000-2005 Private equity investor and founder of TrustLink, a software vendor with offices in Moscow, Stockholm and San Mateo, California.
- a Board Member for the Swedish Chamber of Commerce for Russia since 2009
- 2006-2013 Managing Director, Head of Russia/CIS, Carnegie Investment Bank, Stockholm, Sweden
- 2013- Founder and manager of own advisory and investment company Montecito Capital
- 2016- Senior Advisor at UB Capital (United Bankers of Finland)